

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is just plain wrong! It is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. This is an abuse of the power that the Bush Administration has given corporate broadcasters. When these companies control the airwaves, the American public is kept in the dark -ignorant of the facts.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Please do the right thing. Thank you.
